Introduction

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the UN management reform call for UN managers to lead effective teams, implement changes and ultimately strengthen the UN's capacities to achieve the 2030 Agenda.

UNSSC puts you in control of your own learning, giving you access to a unique collection of management modules tailor-made for leaders and managers across the UN system.

The curriculum includes a continuously growing collection of modules spanning across four different dimensions of management, including people management, planning, programme implementation and resource management.
