

UN Emerging Leaders Experience - October

An intensive four-day programme to cultivate the leadership potential of middle-managers within the UN system.

#Leadership #Case study #Verbal communication #Self-awareness #face-to-face #Up to 1 week #Turin Campus

Introduction

Designed to develop the leadership potential of middle managers, this programme focuses on negotiation, consensus building and communications skills. It employs an array of active learning methodologies and tools such as an individualized 360° leadership assessment (offered in English and French).

The programme allows participants to cultivate stronger connections by networking with peers from across the UN system and various duty stations and to develop skills for persuasive advocacy and communication across multi-stakeholder environments and audiences.

Faculty

Dr. Connson
Chou Locke

Course Methodology

This face-to-face course combines lectures by external experts and senior UN staff with interactive and participatory exercises. Participants engage in peer-to-peer exchange, role play, case studies and interactive reflection to create a rich and proactive learning environment.

Target Audience

UN staff at the P3 level with managerial responsibilities and/or aspiring leadership roles, and at the P4 level or equivalent (exceptions may be made on an ad-hoc basis)

Cost of participation

The programme fee of 3,000 USD covers:

- A pre-residential component, including a 360° leadership assessment and/or personality assessment and pre-readings;
- A four-day face-to-face training, with individual coaching sessions;
- Follow up activities and continued alumni networking opportunities.

Refreshments will be provided during the programme. The fee does not include travel, accommodation, meals and other incidentals.

Certificates of attendance from the UN System Staff College will be awarded to participants who complete the course.
